Introduction to Because I Can	Sally introduced 'Because I Can' workshop to the group, explaining it was a taster session. It was well received by the group and they look forward to undergoing more 'Because I Can' training over the next few months.

Review how things are travelling with MAC	Home modifications have dropped off as the provider needs to refer to an OT. Sarah is considering putting a list of OT's together for now and for future reference. Lisa explained a few changes; they can refer straight to ACAT. There is no domestic in the south and can only refer to a wait list. Alternatively, can refer to a private service. Sally gave the group a hand out from the Hon Sussan Ley and read out experts from guest speaker's notes from 16 October – attachment 1. Sally mentioned the road map and the restorative manual to the group.	Sally to email to the group Sally to email both articles to the group
Project officer update	Leap SA are holding a workshop on 'Workplace resilience', a handout was given with booking details. Paul Cann will be guest speaker at the City of Onkaparinga Civic Centre on Monday 7 November, titled, 'The Campaign to End Loneliness'.
Information sharing	Di (Life Without Barriers) Preparing for organisation accreditation. Attended the Community Care Symposium – discussion about business models. Red light on for domestic assistance. Gardening is at capacity in the south, but there is availability in the west and north. Social and individual are open. Fee for service is competitive and open for business. Lisa (Aged Care Alternatives / RAS) Hiring extra staff and currently very busy. Rachel (City of Holdfast Bay) Green light on for home maintenance, personal transport at capacity and looking for volunteers.

	Filomena (Carers SA) Carer's week was busy for the team. Had a stall at the Aging and Disability Expo. New brochures and campaign has been developed. Rosemary Warmington (CEO) is retiring. Kristy (Baptist Care) Very new in the role. There are some vacancies in transport, social groups and meals. Janine (Care and Share Trinity) Looking for client referrals. Attended the Aging and Disability expo. Vacancies for over 65 for centre based care. Won a seniors grant for exercise program equipment. Sarah (City of Mitcham) Red light is currently activated. Full cost recovery for home maintenance: $55 per hour.
