

Who you need to notify when a loved one or friend has passed on

By Eirwen Wiggins - Onkaparinga Carer

- Telling family and friends
- Centrelink
- Life insurance
- Funeral insurance
- Arranging funeral
- House and contents insurance
- Car insurance
- Medicare
- Electric
- Gas
- Water
- Council rates
- Phone/internet
- Mobile phone
- Dentist
- Doctor
- Hospital
- Specialist
- Physiotherapist
- Speech therapist
- Counsellor
- Physiologist
- Chemist
- Optician
- Podiatrist
- Loan company
- Financial institutions
- Banks
- Credit card
- Stocks and bonds
- Building society
- Accountant
- Tax adviser
- Solicitor
- Public trustee
- Tax office
- Superannuation
- Employer
- Directorships
- Ambulance
- Electoral office
- Car registration
- Driving licence
- RAA
- Dog registration
- Clubs/groups/organisations
- Health benefits fund
- Religious/church organisations
- Hairdressers
- Ladies – nails
- Post office
- Community bus
- Organised taxis
- Household help/garden services
- Meals on wheels/Lite and easy
- Vets
- Emergency services levy
- Concession
- Seniors card
- Home care assist/nursing
- Volunteers
- Carers support
- Nursing home
- Trust house/landlord
- Library
- Disability SA
- Domiciliary care
- Home medical aids on rental or loan
- Home delivery services/newspapers
- Newsagency
- Service companies/rotary/lions
- Blood bank
- Store cards – Myers etc
- Lay-bys
- Radio rentals
- Car mechanics
- Subscriptions to magazines etc